UNIVERSITY

Write, Now!

The UNIVERSITY WRITING TEST is an undergraduate degree requirement.

Test date for the next University Writing Test:
FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 2005

Do not delay. Students must meet the writing requirement early in their university careers, so that remedial work — should it be necessary — may be undertaken as soon as possible.

Appointment cards will be available on the MyConcordia Web portal and at the Birks Student Service Centre – Room LB 185 as of Wednesday, January 5, 2005.

Concordia University is committed to ensuring that its graduating students possess good writing skills.

Test your writing skills, now! And, if necessary, benefit from the courses and services that are available at Concordia.
